

THE REVENUE.—The Republic states that the Revenue from Customs from July 1, 1850, to June 1, 1851, amounts to $44,349,063, an increase of $7,30,573 over the corresponding eleven months of 1849-50.

—The proceedings of the meeting at Kenansle, shall appear in our next.

MORTALITY ON SHIPBOARD.—Six persons died on the Wm. Starbuck, Capt. Huestis, arrived at New York on Saturday morning, on her passage from Rio Janeiro, viz:—Henry B. Ward, of Wilmington, N. C., on the 2d of May; Mike Schoey, of England, seaman, on the 6th; L. Johnson, of New York, on the 24th; Charles Miller, on the 25th; and Harry Alson on the 26th, all of yellow fever.

lished by our experiment, but in its progression has dealt out a great degree of prosperity to the people, and a greater aggregate of happiness to laboring masses, and a greater rapidity of growth and improvement to the country, than has ever marked the career of any other nation on the face of the

to the Union, the constitution, and the laws, and will faithfully observe and execute, so far as in them lies, all the measures of compromise adopted by the late Congress for the purpose of settling the questions arising out of domestic slavery; and this not only from a sense of duty as good citizens of the republic, but also from the kind and fraternal feelings which they cherish towards their brethren of the slaveholding States.

possessions, which, together with the submitted kinges' herds and the army, would make the total population of the Empire amount to 65,000,000. The people are thus distributed with respect to their religious faith: 48,000,000 belonging to the orthodox Greek Church; 7,300,000 to the Roman Catholics; 3,500,000 are Protestants; 2,400,000 are Mohamedans; 2,200,000 Jews; 1,000 Armenian, Gregorian and Armenian Catholics, and 600,000 Pagans.

[illegible]

[illegible]

